

DIY Seifen & Badesalz selbst gefertigt

Instructions No. 1855

🔪🔪🔪🔪 Difficulty: Beginner

🕒 Working time: 30 Minutes

Are you interested in homemade soaps? In these basic instructions we have Bath salts compiled all important techniques for making your own soaps.

Pouring soap is very easy!

You need few basics for casting soap: only choose a heat-resistant casting mould, casting soap and a melting pot.

According to your personal taste you can create individual soap bars by using scented oil, Soap colour, care additives. You wish a detailed instruction? Please read the instruction 1439 "Pouring soap".

Refined soap reliefs are created by placing a relief inlay in the mould before the casting process. Learn in the instruction no. 1662 "Pouring soap with the contour liner" how easy it is.

Bath salts and bath balls

With only little effort, you can also produce castings and balls Bath salts , just like soap. The instruction 1657 "Wellnessbox with self made " does not only Soap designcontain information about how to pour the soaps but also how to create coloured and shaped Bath salts bath balls.

DIY soaps and bath salts are the ideal gift idea

Bath salts filled into small tubes, the soap bars in noble packaging and provided Paper with pretty stickers result in unique small gifts - friends and acquaintances will certainly be pleased about the pretty and practical presents.

Article information:

Article number	Article name	Qty
485708	Casting mould "Oval"	1
719988	Sticker for soap "Hygge"	1
488624	Relief inlay "Made by me"	1
485685	Casting mould "Flowers"	1
506755-01	Glycerin Eco-Casting Soap "Olive Oil", Transparent500 g	1
485692	Casting mould "Quadro"	1
506564-01	Scent oil, 10 mlVanilla	1
506557-01	Soap colour, 10mlLemon	1
491402	Universal melting pot	1
506458	Casting mould "Squares"	1
506717-01	Glycerine Eco-cast Soap "Aloe Vera", opaque500 g	1
506762-01	Glycerin Eco-casting soap "Olive oil", opaque500 g	1